

Some Savannah Sites- Things to See and Do!

RIVER STREET!

Lots to see, do, drink, buy and eat there!

Jen's & Friends – Intimate Pub Grub

7 East Congress Street (912) 238.5367

Tucked into Bull Street just off of Johnson Square, you'll find an unexpected oasis for craft beer in Savannah: Jen's & Friends. For the past six years, Jen's has been Savannah's home to hundreds of specialty martinis including such popular concoctions as the Bananas Foster Martini, the Snickers Martini – and recently the BLT Martini! The atmosphere is comfortable, with a bar that runs the entire length of the room and banquettes lining a wall with small cocktail tables for couples and groups. With a capacity of 37 (yes, 37 people only), you'll find a mix of “regulars” and tourists raising a glass together.

Crystal Beer Parlor – Eclectic Cuisine and Drinkery

301 West Jones Street

HOURS- Sun-Thurs 11am to 10pm

Savannah's second oldest restaurant opened in 1933 during the Great Depression and has been a gathering spot for locals and visitors ever since. We're a little off the beaten path, and we think folks like it that way. Politicians, bankers, lawyers, realtors, CEOs, artists, authors and celebrities, as well as painters, plumbers, truck drivers and generations of Savannah's families, have filled the seats over the years. If these walls could talk!

Best known for the all-beef burgers, hand-cut fries and crab stew, these classics are still on the menu, along with other old favorites. Nothing fancy on the menu here, but everything is fresh and prepared to order. We've added a number of salads, sandwiches and vegetarian selections. There's something on the menu for everyone, from grilled cheese sandwiches to rack of lamb!

Mrs. Wilkes' Dining Room – Family Style

107 West Jones Street

Monday-Friday • 11am-2pm $$$ Cash Only

A line gathers each morning at 107 West Jones Street. At 11 o'clock, the doors of 107 open and the lunch crowd finds seats at one of the large tables-for-ten shared by strangers. Tabletops are crowded with platters of fried chicken and cornbread dressing, sweet potato souffle, black-eyed peas, okra gumbo, corn muffins and biscuits. The menu changes daily so regulars can have something different every day. Stop by and enjoy the special pleasure of a meal shared with neighbors and strangers.

Leopolds Ice Cream Shop

212 E. Broughton Street

HOURS- Monday - Thursday: 11am - 11pm

Leopold's Ice Cream was founded in 1919 by three immigrant brothers from Greece: George, Peter, and Basil Leopold. They learned the art of candy and dessert from an uncle who had already settled in America. The brothers perfected the secret formulas and created the world famous Leopold's VeriBest™ ice cream. They opened their own ice cream parlor on the corner of Gwinnett and Habersham streets in Savannah, where two streetcar lines intersected. Many a rider would jump off the streetcar and entreat the motorman to wait as they got a frozen delight!

Historic Grayson Stadium | SandGnats.com

1401 East Victory Drive (912) 351.9150

Home of the Savannah Sand Gnats. The Sand Gnats are a Savannah baseball tradition dating back to 1904. The Savannah Sand Gnats continue Savannah's baseball legacy by playing their games at Historic Grayson Stadium. Baseball legends such as Hank Aaron, Babe Ruth, Mickey Mantle and Jackie Robinson have graced the field at the corner of Bee Rd. and Victory Dr. Current stars such as Texas Rangers third baseman Hank Blalock and Cleveland Indians first sacker Travis Hafner both got their start on the field at Grayson. Not only has the stadium served as baseball's home in Savannah, but it has also hosted events ranging from concerts to the Thanksgiving Day Football Classic between Savannah High School and Benedictine Military Academy from 1927–1959.
